Pastor's Notes †

Hebrews 12:4-24: Like the faithful saints of old we are in the process of going to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of God, where His redeemed children will live in joy forever. One day we will join that communion of saints in person, but even now we can live as God's saints who are declared holy in Christ. We have not yet reached perfection, but by God's grace we are moving forward. Day by day we give evidence that God is at work within us and we show that through our stewardship of all of life and life's resources.

Life Quotes from Lutherans for Life- "Let your children hear the basic teachings of the Christian faith from your lips. Field the questions regarding their relationship with Jesus Christ as they surface. Give them biblical answers. Who knows, these children you love may walk away from the faith, & this will be heartbreaking for you. Just remember God's promise: 'My Word will not return void.' It is not that you have failed if you have witnessed in your home by word & action that Jesus is your Lord. Where there is great concern is when our children venture out into a world filled with temptation & have not been taught what the Word of God has to say." -Rev. Homer Larson, Christian Crusaders.

Ladies Retreat 2010- at Lake Lundgren Bible Camp is now taking registrations. Forms can be found in the Narthex. Featured speaker is Pam Morgan. A craft sale will also be held. Contact Connie Henkel for more information (725-0694).

Ladies Aid- The collection for World Relief has had a wonderful response; we could still use regular band aids & more combs, preferably wide tooth, for the health kits. Thanks for your donations. -Trinity's Ladies Aid.
