The Busy Bees

Bugs, bugs, and more bugs! That was our theme of the week! The Busy Bees learned all about insects! They created some really cool projects like stained glass butterflies, paper plate lady bugs and some glow in the dark fireflies. The preschoolers also went on a field trip this past Tuesday to see Tom Pease! It was fun singing and dancing along to all of the songs. The PK-2nd grade had a junior field day! The kids had a blast playing all the different games!

“Kindergarten Corner”

We are happy to introduce Miss Emily Ehlert, a student of Concordia Mequon, who will observe and help in our Kindergarten classroom these next weeks. She is studying to be an Elementary teacher. Thanks for being with us! Our room looks more like the rainforest each day. The snakes are now on the vines, with the toucans in the canopy. Jaguars are next! This week's fieldtrip was very fun because we got to hear and sing with Tom Pease, a singer folk artist, who specializes in making kids smile and learn through music. We got to sing a song for Chapel this week. Come and celebrate with our school family on Sunday for Mrs. Kamprath's retirement party @ 11:30 potluck.

What's Happening in 3rd & 4th Grade

We have been getting ready for the West Bloomfield field day. We have timed our dashes and relays, measured our jumps and throws, and deemed ourselves ready to go. Now we pray the weather will be great, too.

In Religion we have been studying the early Christian church. What great men and women of faith they were. We want to follow their lead and not be afraid to share our faith with others in the words we say and the things we do.

First and Second Grade Spotlight

This week we continued our insect unit in Science. Last week, our Special Friends helped us create our own insects out of a variety of craft materials ☺ Reading group 1A read “That Toad is Mine”, 1B read “Henry & Mudge: The Starry Night”, 2A worked on pronouns and endings, and 2B read “The Keeping Quilt”. We only have one more Spelling test for the end of the year!

You Took Me Out To the Ballpark”

You can almost hear the music right? Last Wednesday evening we had 127 people attend the Trinity Tailgate and Rattler's game. God blessed the night with quiet, dry weather. We enjoyed good food, visiting and watching the play of the children before we headed in the stadium. We are proud of the 45 children who read many books to earn their free ticket.
