✠ Stewardship Lesson ✠

1 Peter 2:21 – “For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps.” Our heavenly Father wants us to grow into the image of His Son, to follow in His steps. Jesus suffered for us not only to redeem us, but also to show us what love looks like – to leave us an example of self-giving, sacrificial generosity. “Let us ever walk with Jesus, follow His example pure.”

† Thank You To †

Everyone, for your prayers and cards. The impact of God's healing hand can be seen daily. Bless each and every one of you.

Lee and Elaine Weinig.

LCMS and Brakebush Chicken The recent donation of chicken for our food pantry. This chicken will be distributed during food pantries for the following months. Thank you to everyone who continues to support our pantry during this very difficult time. The need is great. Our current need is for healthy cereal. If you could throw an extra box of cereal in your grocery cart and donate it to our food pantry we will be very grateful. Thank you for your continued support.

(Jesus said) I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. (John 10:14-15)

In the Name † of Jesus. Amen. In John 9, Jesus meets a little lamb who has no shepherd. He was a man who had been born blind. Jesus gave this lamb his sight in a miracle so amazing it showed proof to all the people that He is the Messiah. But that amazing miracle got the lamb in trouble. The hired hands (who were supposed to be shepherds) asked the lamb what he thought about Jesus. The lamb confessed faith in the One who had opened his eyes, and the hired hands, the Pharisees, kicked him out of the flock. The lamb was no longer welcome! Who would care for him now? Thankfully Jesus had not only given the lamb physical eyes that could see, but had opened his heart to believe as well. The lamb would not be alone. Jesus came to the lamb and took him into His flock. The lamb confessed faith in Jesus, and he has been safe with the Good Shepherd ever since.

In John 10, Jesus talks about the way that the little lambs whom He had come to save were being mistreated by the hired hands who were supposed to look after them. In contrast, Jesus proclaims, "I AM the Good Shepherd." When the wolf (Satan) comes to attack the lambs, Jesus is the Good Shepherd who lays down His life to rescue them. He is the Good Shepherd who rose again to protect His flock through this dangerous world until they are safe in heaven.

You also hear the voice of your Good Shepherd. He speaks clearly to you in His Word. He laid down His life to rescue you. He rose to protect you. He seeks after you when you stray. He carries you in His arms when you are weary. He speaks in the Scriptures to calm your heart and give you peace when you are scared. He feeds you with His Supper when you are hungry. He gives you the quiet waters of Baptism. Jesus is your living Good Shepherd, and you are His beloved lamb. In the Name † of Jesus. Amen.

O God, through the humiliation of Your Son You raised up the fallen world. Grant to Your faithful people, rescued from the peril of everlasting death, perpetual gladness and eternal joys; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. (Collect for the Third Sunday of Easter)
