✠ Stewardship Lesson ✠

Mark 10:37-38a – “And they said to him, ‘Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.’ Jesus said to them, ‘You do not know what you are asking.’” Jesus’ glory was to be high and lifted high upon a cross. And when He took up that exalted position, there would indeed be a man on His right and another on His left – the two thieves. How often do we pray for things and not know what we are really asking for? How often do we think we know best? What is always best is to follow the Lord’s commands in simple faith that He knows best.

“Sent to Serve”

This Week’s Theme:

St. James the Elder, Apostle

Acts 11:27–12:5

Romans 8:28–39

Mark 10:35–45

St. James the Elder, Apostle

The sons of Zebedee ask for seats at Jesus’ “right hand and ... left, in your glory” (Mark 10:37). But they do not know what they are asking (Matt. 20:22), for God’s kingdom is not of glory and power but the cross. We will bear ours after Him. “For [His] sake we are being killed” and “regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.” But “in all these things we are more than conquerors through him” (Rom. 8:36–37), for Jesus’ death is unique. He alone is baptized with our sin and drinks the cup of God’s wrath against it (Mark 10:38). We live in service to our neighbors after His example; He alone is “the Son of Man,” who came “to give his life as a ransom for many” (Mark 10:45). Today the Church commemorates the fulfillment of Christ’s prophecy about James, killed with Herod’s sword (Acts 12:2). He is honored as the first apostle to be “conformed to the image of [God’s] Son” (Rom. 8:29). But what is that when “Christ Jesus is the one who died — more than that, who was raised — who is at the right hand of God ... interceding for us”? Nothing (not even a sword) can “separate” James and “us from the love of Christ” (Rom. 8:34–35).

Change in Church Color This Week

This week, in the church year, we celebrate the Festival of St. James the Elder. Red symbolizes the power and strength of the church martyrs. Their red blood, shed in defense of the Gospel, offers encouragement for us to be resolute in living the faith.
