Catechetical Comments

A Series

THE APOSTLES' CREED

This month we continue our look at The Apostles' Creed and consider the following question: Who is God?

93. Who is God?

In His Word God has told us that He is

E. all-knowing (omniscient)

The Small Catechism continues its answer to the question Who Is God? by saying:

In His Word God has told us that He is

E. all-knowing (omniscient)

It then offers the following Scripture passages in support of this answer:

Ps. 139:1-4 – O LORD, You have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; You discern my thoughts from afar. You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways. Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O LORD, You know it altogether.

John 21:17 – Lord, You know everything.

What does it mean to say that God knows everything? Just that. He knows everything. Any arena of human knowledge He knows. Science, mathematics, architecture, geology, zoology, anthropology, astronomy, art, music, language. He knows all of history. He knows all that is happening now. He knows everything that will happen in the future. He knows what people are thinking. He knows everything they're feeling. He knows what they're doing now and everything they will do. He knows it all. He knows everything.

That's just some of what it means to say that God is omniscient, that He knows everything. But what does it not mean?

It does not mean that He controls everything. That's a different attribute and we do not want to commingle or confuse God's attributes.

Some might suggest that, since God knows what's going to happen, He is somehow responsible for it happening. This is often said in respect to whether or not someone is a believer. They will say, "Since God knows whether or not a person will believe in Him, it must be that He decided that such a person would not believe in Him and, therefore, that makes Him responsible."

This is a confusion of God's attributes. God's foreknowledge as to whether a person will or will not be a believer does not mean that He has made that determination, which would be an exercise of His omnipotence, not His omniscience.

By the same token, people will blame God for allowing someone to enter a school with an AK47 and start shooting children. Did God know this would happen? Yes. Did He cause it to happen? No.

It may go without saying, but God knows an awful lot of things we don't. Blaming Him for things that we don't understand is an act of unbelief. Rather, we should recognize that He knows everything and we don't.

What good can there be to a school shooting? I don't know. But I trust that He does. Romans 8:28 is still in effect. †

Humbly in His service,
Rev. Steven S. Billings
Senior Pastor

FROM THE SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

In Ten Years . . .

If you could look into the future, where will Trinity be in ten years? That's not an easy question to answer. If you had asked me ten years ago, where I would be, my answer would have been completely wrong! God has a way of doing things that is quite different than our own thoughts and plans. Sometimes we are disappointed, but sometimes we are delighted.

One thing that delights me is all the people God has led into my path. Some of those are still here; some have come and already moved on. But what a blessing they were to while here, and, we pray, we were to them. And maybe before ten years are up Jesus will return, and we will be reunited with them and all our fellow Trinity past and present, in the Church Triumphant! Who knows?

But we are always looking to the future, uncertain as it is. We have an opportunity to begin a 3 year old Ministry. Wouldn't that be great? All of your Boards are always trying to think of ways to reach out to our community and create opportunities for you to do so. Our prayer is that you live out your faith in care for our friends and neighbors.

The next ten years could also be very challenging ones for the church as well. Hostility toward those who hold to the truth of the Scriptures may continue and even increase, bringing a time of testing and persecution. Perhaps our congregation will experience other kinds of sorrows. We just don't know.

But there is one thing we do know, one thing we can count on, one thing we know will never change, and that is the love and mercy of our God and Savior. His Word will be proclaimed, even if there are many who reject it. His Sacraments will continue to be given, cleansing, feeding, and strengthening His flock. And His Church will go on, for the gates of hell cannot stand against it. Those are promises we can cling to and rely on, no matter what the future holds.

We rejoice in those promises, as sure and true for us as Jesus' empty tomb. He lives, and so will we. And in a world and life where not much is certain, how good to have a foundation that cannot be shaken. So this we know: In ten years . . . we will be with Jesus, either here in time or there in eternity.

Thanks be to God! In Christ, Pastor GeRue

Stewardship Talk:

May 2023 Trinity Newsletter

“Stories of Stewardship” by Reverend Paul Alliet

From Psalm 92:” The righteous flourish like the palm tree and grow like a cedar in Lebanon. They are planted in the house of the Lord; they flourish in the courts of our God. They still bear fruit in old age; they are ever full of sap and green, to declare that the Lord is upright.”

Your Board of Stewardship continues its series of the “Stories of Stewardship” talks and is pleased to share the thoughts of our shut-in One reason I enjoy visiting the homebound members of our congregation is that from them I learn so much of the history of Trinity Lutheran Church. Some of it is joyful, some of it is sad, and some of it is funny. But, in all of it we see the Lord of the Church working through His Means of Grace to build His Church: to call, gather, enlighten, and sanctify His people, and to keep them in the true faith.

Sometimes those blessings have been given in the course of dealing with suffering, sickness, and loss.

That is also true in the lives of individuals. They have received great blessings from their Savior. Sometimes those blessings have been given in the course of dealing with suffering, sickness, and loss. By the faithful preaching of the Gospel and administration of Sacraments by generations of pastors, and by the loving care and encouragement of the members of Trinity, the Holy Spirit has not only kept them in the faith but has given them His gifts in a way and to a degree which they themselves often do not realize. Their desire to hear the Word of God and to receive Holy Communion is a continuation of that history – they believe and feel that by those Means their Savior is continuing His work in their lives as He still works to bring them to eternal life. By speaking with these Christians and hearing their histories, I am blessed to learn that the Triune God is still doing His work in our history...

From Pastor’s words, we see that, although we frequently think about stewardship as a “thing”, it is really a learned way of life that we continue to grow in during our lifetimes. And, that growth is accomplished only through the Holy Spirit acting in and through Word and Sacraments. AND, with that as a backdrop, we will still bear fruit in our old age! Praise God!

Stroke is an Emergency!

'B.E.F.A.S.T.' When You Suspect a Stroke

When it comes to stroke, seconds, minutes, and hours matter. If you suspect a stroke, it's important to call 911 right away. The faster teams can administer care and treatment, the better the outcomes. Acting quickly is of critical importance after a stroke is suspected. Knowing the time a symptom started, or the time when you last felt well, will have an impact on what treatments can be offered safely.

Sudden loss of balance?	Loss of vision in one or both eyes?	Face looks uneven?	Arm or leg weak/hanging down?	Speech slurred? Trouble speaking or seem confused?	Thunder clap headache? Worst headache of your life?

To Prevent a Stroke:

- If you have high blood pressure-work towards the blood pressure your doctor recommends as your goal. High blood pressure is the biggest contributor to the risk of stroke.
- Maintain a healthy weight. Obesity and its complications raise your odds of having a stroke.
- Exercise at a moderate intensity five days a week.
- If you drink-do it in moderation.
- If you have atrial fibrillation-treat it. This irregular heartbeat causes blood clots to form in the heart. The clots can travel to the brain, causing a stroke.
- If you have diabetes-control it. Monitor your blood sugar, use diet, exercise, and medicines to help keep your blood sugar within the recommended range.
- If you smoke-quit. Ask your doctor about the many quit-smoking aids available.

From missionary Dave Pfeifer:

Greetings,

I want to wish each one of you a Very Blessed Easter as we celebrate how and why we were saved by our Lord and Savior, Jesus. "For GOD so loved the world that He gave His one and only SON, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. For GOD did not send His SON into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him." John 3:16, 17.

May you all celebrate the real meaning of Easter with Joy, Peace, Comfort, and the reassurance that our sins, past, present, and future have all been forgiven. Alleluia!
