Trinity Altar Guild Volunteers Needed:

Serving the Lord means being completely devoted in all service to the Lord and His people. It means obeying and enjoying our relationship with God as our Heavenly Father. To serve the Lord with our whole being means that the spirit, soul, and body all participate in the service to the Lord. All believers are called on to serve the Lord.

One way to serve the Lord, and Trinity is in setting the Lord's Table. This is truly an honor and blessing. Please contact Jean Zeinert at (920) 722-2662 and let us know if you would like to help.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

This month we continue our consideration of the First Article of the Apostles' Creed, with special focus on question 104.

104. What plan does God use for the reproduction of living things?

God created living things to reproduce "according to their kinds." Animals, plants, and people can reproduce only living things like themselves.

Martin Luther continues his explanation of the First Article of the Creed by asking the question:

What plan does God use for the reproduction of living things?

He answers this question with the statement:

God created living things to reproduce "according to their kinds." Animals, plants, and people can reproduce only living things like themselves.

For scriptural support of this statement, he provides the following:

Genesis 1:21 – God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:24 – God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds—livestock and creeping things and beasts of the earth according to their kinds."

People can only reproduce with other people. "What about cloning?" someone may ask. First of all, science has yet to find a way to make human beings via the process known as cloning. Even attempts to replicate other creatures by this process have had limited success.

And it's not like cloning creates new life out of nothing (like God did). Cloning must utilize a donor cell from a living creature, from which genetic material is then extracted and injected into a donor egg from a living creature. Were it ever to work with humans (which, so far, it hasn't), what you would end up with is a twin of the one who contributed the genetic material.

While scientists claim to have successfully cloned a number of mammals, these have all been generated by borrowing living material.

So, what conclusions can we draw from this? Regardless of the methods used, God still controls how life is reproduced, and without Him, it's impossible to roll new living creatures off an assembly line.

Nor has anyone been successful at breeding creatures of differing genetic groups. Though horses can be bred with donkeys to produce mules, they are both of the equine family, so are genetically similar. (Mules, by the way, cannot reproduce themselves, since they have an odd number of chromosomes.)

Will scientists ever overcome the challenges and be able to cross species of differing families? The likelihood seems negligible, but even if they did, we would still have to recognize that the life comes from God.

FROM THE SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

I woke up this morning, at the same time as usual. I put on the same slippers and robe. Made the same coffee in the same coffee maker. I turned on the radio and heard the same news as usual. The same issues, the same problems, the same life. Perhaps it was the same for you. It was almost like this day was no different than any other day. . . . Almost.

It was like that, I think, for the two Mary's, Joanna, and the other women who woke up this morning some 2000 years ago. Oh, it wasn't exactly the same, for they had a funeral to attend to, but this was a ritual they had attended to before. Toward the cemetery they drug their feet. Loaded down with the oils and spices and all the stuff they needed to put on the cold, stiff corpse. There was no undertaker to do the undertaking – it was up to them. These poor women. Their hope had been sucked out of them. Their hearts were sad and heavy. . . . They were like many today who wake up, day after day the same, with no hope, weighed down with problems, going to a job they really don't want to do.

But this morning turned out not to be what these women had expected. When they got to the tomb, the stone had been rolled away. There was no cold, stiff, corpse. And two men appear, in dazzling apparel. At first the women are afraid. Who are they, what are they doing here, and what do they want? Human nature assumes the worst. But then these men open their mouths and preach good news: "Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how He told you, while He was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise." Women, save your oil and spices for another day! For another corpse! The Lord does not need them. This tomb is empty! He is risen! He is risen, indeed!

And so, a day that started ordinary became much more. It became a day unlike any other day, and a day that has transformed all days. And it is why you are here, celebrating, today. Because what happened on this day means that things will never be the same for you again.

Because what happened this day? A dead man was raised to life again? Yes, but much more! Today, sin has been overcome. The One on whom all our sins were placed on Good Friday has now been raised from the dead. Therefore if the same God who condemned Jesus to death on the cross has now raised Him from the dead, it must mean that His sacrifice for your sins was perfect. Every single penny of debt you owe to God for your sins has been paid in full.

You now owe nothing! The bill is paid. The check did not bounce. It is finished, your sin and condemnation. It is complete, your salvation. And you know it because God the Father has raised Jesus back to life.

What else happened this day? A dead man was raised to life again, but much more! Today, death has been overcome. The One who was declared guilty by the Father on Good Friday and died our death has now been raised from the dead. For He could not stay dead. He had to rise because His death paid the price for sin demanded by the Law. Jesus did not rise from the dead simply because He was too powerful to remain in the grave. He did not rise from the dead simply because He was God. Rather, Jesus rose from the dead because He took away the sin of the world, and where there is no sin, neither is there death. Where there is forgiveness of sins, there must also be life and salvation. Death has been overcome.

And what else happened this day? A dead man was raised to life again, but much more! Today, the grave has been overcome. The One placed into the tomb on Good Friday has now broken the seal of the grave. The victim has become the victor, and His resurrection is now your resurrection. All that separated you from God has now been conquered. And as Christ's very own body was raised after His death, so will your own body be raised after your death. We will not be angels. We will not be spirits. We will not be gods. You will be who you are, only perfected. You will know and be known. You will receive the goal of your faith – not just to die and go to heaven, but to be raised to a new life, body and soul, to live before God as He intended. As Adam and Eve once lived, Paradise restored.

And so, this day is unlike any other day, and a day that has transformed all our days, so that no day will ever be the same again. For although we live in a world of sin, and death, and conflict; although many days seem the same, and we may seem to be in a rut; the reality of our lives in quite different. For we are living in a new day. The sin and death of Good Friday is past, and the future that awaits us is a glorious one. And so, each day, come what may, is an Easter Day. A day of resurrection, a day of forgiveness, a day of hope and confidence.

For yes, each day our sin rears its ugly head within us, but in Christ each day is Easter Day, and we are forgiven and raised to a new life.

And yes, each day death surrounds us and none of us knows whether this will be the day that an accident, or terrorism, or tragedy, or disease takes our life. But in Christ each day is Easter Day, and we know that death is done and that we will live.

And yes, each day the devil stretches out the grave before us and wants to convince us that our separation from God has not really been overcome at all, for it is too great. Your sin is too much. But in Christ, each day is Easter Day, and we know that the devil has been defeated. We have been reconciled to God. There is now nothing that separates us from love of God in Christ Jesus.

And so, it was on that first Easter Day, when the women arrived at the tomb. "He is not here, but has risen." At first, they thought that was bad news! But it really was good news. The bad news would have been if the angels had said to them, "Oh, you're looking for Jesus? To anoint His body? Oh, here He is. Right over here. In this corner." But no. "He is not here, but has risen. Remember how He told you, while He was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise."

And, we are told, they did remember. They remembered His words. He told them He would die, and He did. He told them He would rise, and He did. He told them He was the Son of God. He told them He was the Messiah, the Savior. He told them, and it was true! They remembered all His words, and they knew they were true! His words of life, of hope, of forgiveness, of heaven, of peace – the empty tomb proves them all! This was a day unlike any day. A day that had changed everything. A day that had changed every day.

And so, for you and I. I woke up this morning and my house said everything is the same. Everything in its place. The same ol', same ol'. The radio told me that too. It was almost like this day was no different from any other day. Almost. But today everything has changed. Jesus Christ is Risen Today. I Know that My Redeemer Lives. Today my sin has been overcome. My death has died. My grave has been opened. Today is Easter Day! And you know what? Tomorrow will be too.

Easter Breakfast – April 20, 2025 • 7:30 AM

Please join us as we celebrate our Lord’s resurrection. Easter Breakfast is a wonderful time of great food and fellowship. We have so many reasons to celebrate our Lord and what He accomplished on our behalf.

- MENU:
- Scrambled Eggs
 - Ham
 - Cheesy Potatoes
 - Quiche
 - Fruit Salad
 - Pastries
 - Cold Cereal
 - Beverages

Easter Breakfast Help is Needed

If you would like to donate needed items for the breakfast, there are sign-up sheets in the narthex.

We also need volunteers to help us set up, serve, and clean-up. This year we will try to make clean up as simple as possible so all can attend the 9:00 AM church service.

The funds raised will go toward the Stained-Glass Restoration Project.

Praise God the Stained-Glass Restoration Fundraisers have been successful. We are well on our way to achieving our goal of restoring all the windows, thanks to the dedication of Trinity’s’ Family to preserving the structure and beauty of our church and school. God bless you all!

Stewardship Message

Your Board of Stewardship would like to commend those of you that have supported the Pastors' Appeal. The appeal will end at Easter and a celebration of Thanksgiving will follow the weekend after Easter. Results will be presented at the celebration. The opportunity to contribute to pay back the restricted funds remains until the celebration date. Please consider making a commitment to contribute to this endeavor.

The important thing to understand is when you take funds out of your regular giving and designate that to the Pastor's appeal it has a negative impact on or mission budget. Thus, we must go to the Appeal monies to borrow funds to pay bills. Donations to the Pastors' Appeal must be in addition to regular giving.

In terms of our much-needed stained glass window repair, there are plans under way to raise $70,000 in needed associated costs. Some donations and pledges have already been received. Brat fry's, estate sales, bake sales, and craft sales along with other possibilities exist so please keep your eyes and ears open for more information. Please, please consider a special gift for this project. The Lord has blessed us with these beautiful windows that provide stories and events in the life of Jesus. It would be a terrible shame to see any of the windows damaged to the point of non-repair. Gifts for this project should also be above and beyond regular giving.

We clearly understand that everyone's costs are up, and extra cash is not always available in your budgets, but we are all responsible for covering the costs, bills and repairs on this beautiful building so whatever you can do to contribute, prayers, dollars or fundraisers will be appreciated and are necessary. If we look hard enough at our personal budgets there will most likely be an opportunity for a bit of sacrificial giving

Let us praise the Lord for all He has provided for Trinity! Let us continue to pray for His guidance and blessings! Pray for Him to provide us with more opportunities to raise funds so that our Trinity family can continue to carry out His mission!

Thank you so much!

TRINITY LUTHERAN BRAT FRY

Trinity will be hosting a brat fry and bake sale on April 25 and 26th at the home of Cari and James Boss, 1031 Antelope Trail Ct., Neenah. Last year was blessed with many very hungry customers: we sold 450 brats, 240 hamburgers and 116 hot dogs and we ran out of food by noon on Saturday. We are planning for another record year and have increased the quantity of brats and other meat items. Sooo come on down, the men of Trinity will be cooking Jacob's Meat brats. Also to have a successful two-day sale many hands are needed and there are many ways in which you can serve! There are signup sheets on the spinner in the narthex for working in the stand or grilling. Also, donation items are needed or if you don't want to shop, cash for purchasing meat etc. are always appreciated. This sale last year was a huge success and very busy. There will also be a bake sale with our brat fry. Our bake sales are well received so we hope all of you wonderful bakers will be willing to donate items. Pies, sweet breads, bars and cookies all sell well; be creative! If possible, it would help if you had your items wrapped and ready to sell; however, if not, no worries; we can do that. You may bring items to Trinity on Thursday 4/24 (small fellowship hall) between 8 am and 2:30 pm or to the sale site either day. Thank you!

We also ask you to pray for our sale; we pray for the safety of our workers and customers and above all that that we can conduct ourselves as loving Christian people and share His love.

All proceeds of this sale will go for restoration of Trinity's Stained-glass windows

RUMMAGE & CHILI SALE April 25 & 26

Oh No, It's Got to Go We Aren't Hoarding No More

Location is 1902 Mary Lane, Neenah (home of Betsy Meverden)

Help make our sale a success by donating your gently used items; clothing, furniture, home décor, crafting items, vintage clothing and antiques. You can drop off your items at the Meverden residence or at the church office. Please price the items and let us know if you would like your items back if they don't sell.

Most importantly stop by the sale and find a treasure of your own.

All proceeds going to the Stained-Glass Window Preservation
