Catechetical Comments

A Series

THE APOSTLES' CREED

This month we return to our consideration of the First Article of the Apostles' Creed by taking up question 106.

106. What was the image of God?

The image of God was this:

A. Adam and Eve truly knew God as He wishes to be known and were perfectly happy in Him.

and

B. They were righteous and holy, doing God's will.

The Catechism continues its explanation of the First Article of the Creed by asking the question:

What was the image of God?

It answers, first of all, by saying:

A. Adam and Eve truly knew God as He wishes to be known and were perfectly happy in Him.

For scriptural support, Colossians 3:10 is brought to bear:

Colossians 3:10 – Put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator.

Secondly, it adds:

B. They were righteous and holy, doing God's will.

For support, Ephesians 4:24 is listed:

Ephesians 4:24 – Put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

So, Adam and Eve knew a state of existence that we have never known, nor will we until the return of Christ, that is, to live without sin, perfectly reflecting the image of God's righteousness and holiness. Not only did they know God as He desires to be known – intimately, face to face, without any hindrances to fellowship between God and man, but they lived in perfect harmony with Him, delighting to do His will, not out of compulsion or coercion, but freely, willingly, and with much joy.

This kind of relationship is difficult for us to conceive and impossible for us to attain in its original form. Can you imagine a world without death? Can you imagine a world without conflict? Can you imagine a world in which husbands and wives enjoyed perfect communication devoid of any hint of confusion, or, for that matter, disagreement? Such was the world as Adam and Eve knew it.

Have you ever struggled to know what God's will was in a given situation? Have you ever been uncertain as to what God's will was for your life? Adam and Eve never wrestled with such questions. They knew what God expected of them. They knew and appreciated the gifts He had given them. Think about it: They only had two responsibilities: 1) take care of the garden, and 2) make babies.

Oh, for so simple a life! But, as we will see, they were not immune to temptation, and lost both their own perfection and the beautiful relationship with God they enjoyed. †

Humbly in His service,
Rev. Steven S. Billings
Senior Pastor

Stewardship Under the Cross #1 – August 2025 Message

God's Word on How we use His Gifts

So, what is Stewardship?

Christian stewardship is the faithful management of our financial resources and all we have. It begins with the understanding that all we have is God's. Psalm 24:1 says "The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it." Since all we have is God's, we should use it for His purposes. God's purpose for us in our lives is expressed in various vocations, or callings, that we have.

Besides the vocations that each of us have in our family life and in society, we are also all Christians and members of this parish. How do we use our income faithfully in regard to this vocation? To learn this we must look to God's Word.

In Deuteronomy 8 we read: "You may say to yourself, 'My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me.' But remember the Lord your God, for it is He who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which He swore to your forefathers, as it is today."

Matthew 6:19-21 states: "Jesus said, 'Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.'"

And in Malachi 3: "Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me. But you ask, 'How do we rob you?' In tithes and offerings. You are under a curse – the whole nation of you – because you are robbing me."

Finally, 2 Corinthians 8 & 9 says: "But just as you excel in everything – in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in your love for us – see that you also excel in the grace of giving...The point is this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that you may always have enough of everything.

What does this mean?

Your heart always goes where you put God's money. Stewardship is not an optional subcategory of the Christian life; it is the living out of a Christian's dependence on God. As such, faith and finances are inseparable. True joy is found not in storing up the things of this world, for the things of this world will not last. True joy is found in clinging to Christ who poured out His life for you on the cross and now gives you His Life in Baptism, Absolution, and the Lord's Supper. The things of this world are temporarily given to us by God to see, and we will be called to account for how we manage the Owner's things.

This November, we will be asking you to prayerfully consider your giving to God's work in His Church. Are you faithfully giving a first-fruits tithe (10%) of your income to the work of God? Are you, as St Paul says "excelling in the grace of giving"? If not, why not? Next, we'll consider more of what God says about Stewardship – specifically more about tithing (the Biblical practice of giving a tenth of our income to God's work in the Church) – and provide steps for planning your giving for next year.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration....

Stewardship Under the Cross #2 – August 2025 Message

Do I have to Tithe??

That is an interesting question - do we have to tithe under the New Testament? After all, tithing, that is, giving 10% of our income to God's Work in the Church, is a regulation of the Old Testament. We live under Christ in the New Testament; does it apply to us today?

We might approach our answer to this question by asking whether or not we have to keep the Third Commandment, which we read in Exodus 20, "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God. On it, you shall do no work... Therefore, the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy."

So, do we have to keep this commandment? Should we cease from all labor on Saturday as people of the Old Testament did? Of course not! That was one of the Old Testament prophecies of Christ – and since Christ has fulfilled the Sabbath rest by resting in the tomb on Holy Saturday, we are free from the Old Testament Sabbath regulations.

And yet, the Third Commandment stands in our Small Catechism: Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy! What's going on here? Well, here is Luther's explanation of the Third Commandment: "We should fear and love God so that we do not despise preaching and His Word, but gladly hear and learn from it." So, the form of the commandment, the letter of the law, has passed away as a shadow; but the spirit remains. We are to honor God by our worship, gladly receiving His Word and Sacraments in His Church.

So it is with tithing. The New Testament nowhere lists the precise regulations about giving a tithe. We are in no way bound to the legal regulations of Old Testament Israel. And yet, just as the fulfilling of the Sabbath day doesn't mean that going to the Lord's House for worship once a week is obsolete, so also the New Testament does not make faithful financial stewardship obsolete. Rather, it is full of admonitions on this point. For example, 1 Corinthians 16:2 says: "On the first day of every week, each of you is to put something aside and store it up, as each one of you may prosper" And, in 2 Corinthians 8 & 9: "But just as you excel in everything – in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness in your love for us – see that you also excel in the grace of giving...The point is this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that you may always have enough of everything, and may provide in abundance for every good work"

The Old Testament's tithe becomes the "benchmark" for New Testament stewardship. If in the New Testament we are called to give "proportionally" and "generously", then surely the Old Testament tithe is the "floor" level of Christian giving, not the "ceiling". As our worship in the New Testament is a greater fulfillment of the Old Testament Sabbath, so also our New Testament stewardship is called to be an even greater sacrificial fulfillment of the Old Testament tithing regulations.

Do you like to sing, but you are unable to commit to a weekly choir schedule? Trinity's Board of Worship has a deal for you! We are planning a different approach of how to enhance our worship services with music.

We are looking for ensembles, duets and solos. At this time, the year has not been planned in detail. Don't misunderstand! Festival services, like Christmas & Easter, are still scheduled as Festival service and practices will be posted. We are interested in providing more musical opportunities without the traditional structured timeframe. This could be instrumental as well as vocal. We want YOU, no matter how often you can participate, to be a part of our music program at Trinity.

Any Music chosen does need to be approved by Pastor. If you desire to perform a special piece, present it to Pastor Billings to have it approved ahead of time. Even if you're not sure when you'd be able to share it with the congregation. Pastor &/or Nancy will help you pick the best timing for your choice.

If this is of interest to you, and/or your family & friends, contact Elaine Weinig 920-470-9090, director of the Board of Worship, or Nancy Lephart 920-277-4388 (cell), Trinity's music coordinator.

Add your musical talents to help spread God's word in our worship services.

6-20-2025 Stained-Glass Window Restoration Update

Through God's Blessings,

We have our stained-glass windows restored. We were able to pay for them through your desire to adopt windows and with only 4 of the 6 fundraisers ALL of the events surpassed previous incomes of the past years. This was only possible because of the generous donations and the many hands that were involved.

By working together as God's children, and under His Guidance, we were able to surpass all expectations.

Maybe this was God's way of training us for what's ahead for Trinity. We have challenges ahead, but if we remember what we have accomplished through HIM on this project, I am confident He will show us the answers to our future also. Just be patient and don't panic.

The committee and I want to thank you for all the support, in word, prayer and actions, that you have given us over the past 6 months.

The colors and beauty these windows will continue to tell the story of Jesus life and ministry here on Earth and will be a testimony of what God's children can accomplish in His name as we near Trinity's 170TH Anniversary in 2027.

Stained-Glass Window Committee: Carol Evensen, Jean Zeinert, Tammy Collier, Shirley Fleischer, Betsy Meverden, Jane & Bart Nielsen, David Collingwood, Jill & Craig Thomas, Joy White, Elaine & Lee Weinig.
